

The Fresno Republican
PUBLISHED
EVERY FRIDAY AFTERNOON
J. W. SHOOK,
Editor and Proprietor.
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1890.

From the Daily Standard.
James A. Seagler returned from Sacramento yesterday.

Henry Chittenden, the Lumore real estate agent, is in the city.

Parker's "707" cures coughs, colds and bronchitis. W. R. & Co., Props.

Judge Harris yesterday granted a divorce to Nancy Crane from Elisha Crane.

T. J. Pryor, a pioneer merchant of Hanford, is spending a few days in Fresno.

Carlton Curtis has returned from a few weeks' visit at Mendocino, Santa Cruz.

E. J. Walker, formerly of the Nippon Hotel, is the guest of friends in this city yesterday.

J. N. Allen went to look after one of his farms near that place.

Peter Danahoe leaves on this morning's express to recuperate at Byron Springs for the next two weeks.

The life insurance is rapidly increasing, and the latest development will be found in this issue of the Republican.

W. J. Bennett has twenty acres of volunteer barley on his farm west of the city that is already eleven inches high.

C. R. Haddock, an extensive landowner near Grangeville and a director of the Hanford Bank, is in the city.

The drug store on this city have decided to close on Saturdays from 9:30 a. m. to 10 p. m. for the rest of the year.

H. M. Garrote of Woodland is the guest of his brother-in-law, Mr. Parker.

Mr. Garrote has investments in Fresno property.

The life insurance agents journeying in Fresno are requested to attend a Love Feast in the Hughes Hotel to-morrow afternoon.

The $10,000 damage suit of F. P. Thompson against W. M. Haddock was compromised by the plaintiff.

J. W. Anderson, County Superintendent of Schools of San Francisco, is spending a few days visiting his son Thomas, in Fresno county.

Horizontal Commissioner Wheeler reports that the vine disease has completely destroyed the raisin crops of Orange, Santa Ana and Tustin.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Webster, of whom mention was made a few days ago as being on their way home from a two-year visit to their former home in England, arrived last Friday evening.

They are accompanied by Sam Hollinsworth, Mrs. Mark Webster's brother and his family, which consists of a wife and four children and grandchildren.

They will probably remain here for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Webster have greatly enjoyed their visit, and look as though their native climate had dealt kindly with them.

Brought Their Meat Along.
A man and his wife came from Wisconsin last summer and were hired to take charge of a farm near Merced. They were Swiss and have proved to be satisfactory in every way to their employer.

While unloading their baggage from the cars on their arrival in Merced their new employer sent a hand in the operation. After their traps were all unpacked the notice of our friend, and out of curiosity he asked the couple what caused the roll to weigh so heavily, and they informed him that it was a sewing machine taken apart and packed in the bedding.

That was all right, but later in the summer, getting better acquainted, the husband, who was a German, brought along a porker in the manner above related. When informed of the actual value of the commodity, on the first day they all kicking themselves all over the ranch.—Merced Star.

Water in the Mill Ditch.
The water will be turned into the Mill ditch this morning. For the past week the citizens on the west side of the railroad track have had to endure the nauseating stench arising from the mill and fill from the saws which has accumulated during the absence of fresh water from the ditch.

The absence of water from the ditch is due to repairs necessary on a levee at the rear of the Barton vineyard.

Fresh Potatoes Spuds.
Three sweet potatoes taken from the same hill and weighing forty-five pounds, were brought to the Republican office yesterday from the ranch of A. E. Mason, twenty miles south of Fowler. Twenty sacks taken from a patch of 250 plants have an average weight of thirty pounds to the sack. The man who took them will be presented to the Fresno Board of Trade.

In the Courts.
The examination of Louis Mongis on a charge of grand larceny was continued by Recorder Prince yesterday until to-morrow at 10 a. m. Mongis gave bond in the sum of $500, with his wife and son, as sureties.

J. D. Fiske will be tried at 1:30 p. m. to-morrow by Recorder Prince on a charge of violating the fire ordinance in the construction of the hawking-shed on I street.

Carbons Out of Order.
The electric lights at the intersections of M and Inyo and M and Tuolumne streets require to be looked after once again by the company, as they flicker and die out in the darkest nights, regardless of the moonlight shining. Several complaints have been made already concerning them.

Cartwright's Carload of Raisins.
A. Cartwright, of Central Colony, is packing a carload of raisins for the Eastern market. The raisins will be labeled "Cartwright's Raisin Park." The labeled car consists of twenty cars, not all of which are raisins, however.

The Protracted Meeting.
Last night at the revival services in the Christian Church a good audience listened to Professor Combs' on "God's Ways Higher Than Man's Ways," after which four converts were named. Others will be named to-morrow.

Cole's Carload of Raisins.
Is a truly wonderful remedy, suited to the skin of the child and the adult, and its soothing, cleansing and healing properties renders its application universal. As an external remedy it has no equal as a cure for Eczema, Erysipelas, Urticaria, and all itching and irritative diseases of the Skin and Scalp. It immediately relieves the pain of Scalds and Burns, and cures the worst case without a mark. Get only the genuine which has a black box with 25 cents; large boxes 50 cents. Sold by Williams & Son, marlet

TWO BILLS OF FARE.

C. Boone Hayes and His Great Appetite.

NOT GUILTY OF BATTERY.

Strange Contradictions of Opposing Witnesses in Recorder Prince's Court Yesterday.

From the Daily Standard.

C. Boone Hayes was acquitted by a jury of eight yesterday in Recorder Prince's court of the charge of battery alleged to have been committed upon G. Steffen, a waiter employed in Mitrovich's restaurant. Twelve testimony had been accepted by the defense, but the attorney for the prosecution persistently challenged the following named witnesses: Jo. P. Carroll, A. Morris, Charles Berry and Al. Knox.

The panel and the court of the prosecution existing between the opposing counsel both became exhausted at the same time, and it was finally agreed to try the case with the right jury.

COURT BY THE JURY.

Steffen testified that on the night of September 11th Hayes, whom he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

Steffen testified that Hayes, who he perceived in eating with a friend and ordered something from the dinner bill of fare. The waiter handed him the bill of fare, and explained that the bill of fare was for the dinner.

RABBITS AND RATTLERS.

The Latest Snake Story Told by the Merced Star.

IT EXCITES PRESNO'S ENTERPRISE.

And boasts that Merced City Will Become the Railroad Center of the San Joaquin.

From the Daily Standard.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

RABBITS AND RATTLERS.

The Latest Snake Story Told by the Merced Star.

IT EXCITES PRESNO'S ENTERPRISE.

And boasts that Merced City Will Become the Railroad Center of the San Joaquin.

From the Daily Standard.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

RABBITS AND RATTLERS.

The Latest Snake Story Told by the Merced Star.

IT EXCITES PRESNO'S ENTERPRISE.

And boasts that Merced City Will Become the Railroad Center of the San Joaquin.

From the Daily Standard.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

RABBITS AND RATTLERS.

The Latest Snake Story Told by the Merced Star.

IT EXCITES PRESNO'S ENTERPRISE.

And boasts that Merced City Will Become the Railroad Center of the San Joaquin.

From the Daily Standard.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

RABBITS AND RATTLERS.

The Latest Snake Story Told by the Merced Star.

IT EXCITES PRESNO'S ENTERPRISE.

And boasts that Merced City Will Become the Railroad Center of the San Joaquin.

From the Daily Standard.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced Star tells us that in the morning, and insists that Merced is the center of the San Joaquin Valley.

The Merced

THE FRESNO REPUBLICAN

EVERY FRIDAY AFTERNOON

J. W. SHURT. J. W. SHANKLIN.

Editors and Publishers.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1889.

From the Daily of Wednesday.

Ray Withered to Bakersfield last evening. He will be absent several months.

E. B. Hayes drew the gold watch at the sixth yearly drawing of the Occidental Club last Saturday night.

Judge and Mrs. C. H. Sayle and children returned on the round-trip express last evening from a visit to the coast.

Mrs. F. D. Vanderlip, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Sherman Henry, arrived in the city on Oakland last evening.

Mrs. J. G. Rhodes and mother, Mrs. Sarah Wheeler, returned from San Francisco last evening after an absence of several months.

Professor Walsh, instructor of the Young Men's Christian Association Athletic Club, returned last evening from a visit to San Francisco.

The City Society will meet next Sunday at 11 A. M. over the Imperial hotel on K street, the same place where the meeting was held last Sunday.

O. A. Wagner returned yesterday afternoon from a week's visit to his mother in Reno, Nevada. This is the first time the brothers had been in eight years.

Thomas Bates of Centerville returned last Monday evening from a visit to his old home in Kentucky. He is accompanied by his mother and J. A. Gibson, a nephew.

A very pleasant little surprise was tendered Mrs. W. H. Harris at her residence on N street by a number of friends last evening, the occasion being the anniversary of her birth.

J. Johnson of East Avenue, had 2500 yards of musical raincoat partly cut out in the rain. The continued damp weather spoiled them and they turned out to be a total loss.

The work on the San Joaquin, on the corner of Mariposa and N streets, is now nearly up to the surface of the ground.

The social given by the members of the Society of Christian Scientists of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the residence of Mrs. Delia Mills last evening was well attended. Everyone present had a joyous and interesting time.

C. A. Stevens desires the Republican to extend his thanks to the friends who assisted in saving his two-story house from Mr. Street during the fire which destroyed Mr. Lowery's dwelling Monday night. He was unaware that there had been a fire until the read of it in this paper this morning.

M. F. Levy will leave on this morning's express for Ukiah, Mendocino county, where he will engage in business. He will be accompanied as far as San Francisco by his wife and two children, Mrs. M. F. Levy, who will then depart for Reno, Nevada, on a visit to relatives. Last night the members of the orchestra band, of which Mr. Levy was a member, gave at the corner of San Joaquin and N streets.

A Worthy Society.

The Unity Society held a very interesting meeting last Sunday at Nichols' Hall. Addresses were made by Judge W. N. North, George R. Church, F. H. Church, Mrs. Kellough and others.

The society will meet again next Sunday at 11 A. M. in the Elderly building, for the purpose of raising money for the poor of the city. The program of the society is literary, moral, social and educational improvement, and it is expected that in course of time it will result in the elevation of the moral and religious condition of the community.

Dedication of the Adventists' Church.

A large congregation attended the dedication of the beautiful church of the Seventh Day Adventists last Sunday on the east corner of Mariposa and O streets. The choir consisted of Messrs. Beall, Conner, Howard, Hanks, Hays and Loman. The choir sang the hymns and the choir sang the hymns and the choir sang the hymns.

Dr. W. H. Darrow read a very complete and instructive history of the church, and Dr. Bartlett preached a masterly sermon. The choir sang the hymns and the choir sang the hymns and the choir sang the hymns.

A New Settler's House.

James Chamberlain, a capitalist, recently from Seattle, Wash., has awarded to A. Struck the contract for erecting a handsome two-story residence on his ranch east of Temperance Colony. The ranch will be of the modern style of architecture and will cost between $5000 and $6000. Mr. Chamberlain went to San Francisco yesterday to purchase the furnishings of his proposed new home, which is to be situated on a section of land which will be largely planted to raisin vines next spring.

W. C. T. U.

The Union will hold no meeting next Thursday evening, so as not to conflict in any way with the entertainment given for the benefit of the public schools. This afternoon at 3 o'clock the Union will meet in the Presbyterian church and will need in the afternoon and evening the evening there will be a union temperance prayer meeting.

Mrs. Viola Mitchell, Secretary.

Patti Ross.

Patti Ross, the accomplished scabbette, will give Fresnoites a taste of her quality to-night in Riggs theater. Patti has sung, danced and kicked her way into popular favor. She has a plump, serious little face, thick bands of honey brown hair and lustrous, captivating eyes, and of which she is fond of winking at her friends in the front row.

A Bold Theft.

T. Pickford, whose poultry yards are at the corner of Mono street and P. avenue, tonight lost a dozen hens last Thursday for $20, and lost them to the cop on the point of the lawn while he was down town. He was gone not more than half an hour, and when he returned the coop and the chickens had disappeared. He has not found them yet.

Return of Frank Laming.

Frank Laming has returned from a six weeks visit to the San Joaquin valley. He reports business as dull as lead, water in Stockton and the fact that the crop on the point of the lawn while he was down town. He was gone not more than half an hour, and when he returned the coop and the chickens had disappeared. He has not found them yet.

The Mikado Fruit Company.

The Mikado Fruit Company will begin drying fruit in their dryer in Nevada Colony this morning. The new improved fruit dryer has a capacity for drying between thirty and forty tons of fruit per day. The company will first commence on the second crop of raisins.

THE FRESNO REPUBLICAN

EVERY FRIDAY AFTERNOON

J. W. SHURT. J. W. SHANKLIN.

Editors and Publishers.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1889.

From the Daily of Wednesday.

Ray Withered to Bakersfield last evening. He will be absent several months.

E. B. Hayes drew the gold watch at the sixth yearly drawing of the Occidental Club last Saturday night.

Judge and Mrs. C. H. Sayle and children returned on the round-trip express last evening from a visit to the coast.

Mrs. F. D. Vanderlip, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Sherman Henry, arrived in the city on Oakland last evening.

Mrs. J. G. Rhodes and mother, Mrs. Sarah Wheeler, returned from San Francisco last evening after an absence of several months.

Professor Walsh, instructor of the Young Men's Christian Association Athletic Club, returned last evening from a visit to San Francisco.

The City Society will meet next Sunday at 11 A. M. over the Imperial hotel on K street, the same place where the meeting was held last Sunday.

O. A. Wagner returned yesterday afternoon from a week's visit to his mother in Reno, Nevada. This is the first time the brothers had been in eight years.

Thomas Bates of Centerville returned last Monday evening from a visit to his old home in Kentucky. He is accompanied by his mother and J. A. Gibson, a nephew.

A very pleasant little surprise was tendered Mrs. W. H. Harris at her residence on N street by a number of friends last evening, the occasion being the anniversary of her birth.

J. Johnson of East Avenue, had 2500 yards of musical raincoat partly cut out in the rain. The continued damp weather spoiled them and they turned out to be a total loss.

The work on the San Joaquin, on the corner of Mariposa and N streets, is now nearly up to the surface of the ground.

The social given by the members of the Society of Christian Scientists of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the residence of Mrs. Delia Mills last evening was well attended. Everyone present had a joyous and interesting time.

C. A. Stevens desires the Republican to extend his thanks to the friends who assisted in saving his two-story house from Mr. Street during the fire which destroyed Mr. Lowery's dwelling Monday night. He was unaware that there had been a fire until the read of it in this paper this morning.

M. F. Levy will leave on this morning's express for Ukiah, Mendocino county, where he will engage in business. He will be accompanied as far as San Francisco by his wife and two children, Mrs. M. F. Levy, who will then depart for Reno, Nevada, on a visit to relatives. Last night the members of the orchestra band, of which Mr. Levy was a member, gave at the corner of San Joaquin and N streets.

A Worthy Society.

The Unity Society held a very interesting meeting last Sunday at Nichols' Hall. Addresses were made by Judge W. N. North, George R. Church, F. H. Church, Mrs. Kellough and others.

The society will meet again next Sunday at 11 A. M. in the Elderly building, for the purpose of raising money for the poor of the city. The program of the society is literary, moral, social and educational improvement, and it is expected that in course of time it will result in the elevation of the moral and religious condition of the community.

Dedication of the Adventists' Church.

A large congregation attended the dedication of the beautiful church of the Seventh Day Adventists last Sunday on the east corner of Mariposa and O streets. The choir consisted of Messrs. Beall, Conner, Howard, Hanks, Hays and Loman. The choir sang the hymns and the choir sang the hymns and the choir sang the hymns.

Dr. W. H. Darrow read a very complete and instructive history of the church, and Dr. Bartlett preached a masterly sermon. The choir sang the hymns and the choir sang the hymns and the choir sang the hymns.

A New Settler's House.

James Chamberlain, a capitalist, recently from Seattle, Wash., has awarded to A. Struck the contract for erecting a handsome two-story residence on his ranch east of Temperance Colony. The ranch will be of the modern style of architecture and will cost between $5000 and $6000. Mr. Chamberlain went to San Francisco yesterday to purchase the furnishings of his proposed new home, which is to be situated on a section of land which will be largely planted to raisin vines next spring.

W. C. T. U.

The Union will hold no meeting next Thursday evening, so as not to conflict in any way with the entertainment given for the benefit of the public schools. This afternoon at 3 o'clock the Union will meet in the Presbyterian church and will need in the afternoon and evening the evening there will be a union temperance prayer meeting.

Mrs. Viola Mitchell, Secretary.

Patti Ross.

Patti Ross, the accomplished scabbette, will give Fresnoites a taste of her quality to-night in Riggs theater. Patti has sung, danced and kicked her way into popular favor. She has a plump, serious little face, thick bands of honey brown hair and lustrous, captivating eyes, and of which she is fond of winking at her friends in the front row.

A Bold Theft.

T. Pickford, whose poultry yards are at the corner of Mono street and P. avenue, tonight lost a dozen hens last Thursday for $20, and lost them to the cop on the point of the lawn while he was down town. He was gone not more than half an hour, and when he returned the coop and the chickens had disappeared. He has not found them yet.

Return of Frank Laming.

Frank Laming has returned from a six weeks visit to the San Joaquin valley. He reports business as dull as lead, water in Stockton and the fact that the crop on the point of the lawn while he was down town. He was gone not more than half an hour, and when he returned the coop and the chickens had disappeared. He has not found them yet.

The Mikado Fruit Company.

The Mikado Fruit Company will begin drying fruit in their dryer in Nevada Colony this morning. The new improved fruit dryer has a capacity for drying between thirty and forty tons of fruit per day. The company will first commence on the second crop of raisins.

THE FRESNO REPUBLICAN

EVERY FRIDAY AFTERNOON

J. W. SHURT. J. W. SHANKLIN.

Editors and Publishers.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1889.

From the Daily of Wednesday.

Ray Withered to Bakersfield last evening. He will be absent several months.

E. B. Hayes drew the gold watch at the sixth yearly drawing of the Occidental Club last Saturday night.

Judge and Mrs. C. H. Sayle and children returned on the round-trip express last evening from a visit to the coast.

Mrs. F. D. Vanderlip, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Sherman Henry, arrived in the city on Oakland last evening.

Mrs. J. G. Rhodes and mother, Mrs. Sarah Wheeler, returned from San Francisco last evening after an absence of several months.

Professor Walsh, instructor of the Young Men's Christian Association Athletic Club, returned last evening from a visit to San Francisco.

The City Society will meet next Sunday at 11 A. M. over the Imperial hotel on K street, the same place where the meeting was held last Sunday.

O. A. Wagner returned yesterday afternoon from a week's visit to his mother in Reno, Nevada. This is the first time the brothers had been in eight years.

Thomas Bates of Centerville returned last Monday evening from a visit to his old home in Kentucky. He is accompanied by his mother and J. A. Gibson, a nephew.

A very pleasant little surprise was tendered Mrs. W. H. Harris at her residence on N street by a number of friends last evening, the occasion being the anniversary of her birth.

J. Johnson of East Avenue, had 2500 yards of musical raincoat partly cut out in the rain. The continued damp weather spoiled them and they turned out to be a total loss.

The work on the San Joaquin, on the corner of Mariposa and N streets, is now nearly up to the surface of the ground.

The social given by the members of the Society of Christian Scientists of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the residence of Mrs. Delia Mills last evening was well attended. Everyone present had a joyous and interesting time.

C. A. Stevens desires the Republican to extend his thanks to the friends who assisted in saving his two-story house from Mr. Street during the fire which destroyed Mr. Lowery's dwelling Monday night. He was unaware that there had been a fire until the read of it in this paper this morning.

M. F. Levy will leave on this morning's express for Ukiah, Mendocino county, where he will engage in business. He will be accompanied as far as San Francisco by his wife and two children, Mrs. M. F. Levy, who will then depart for Reno, Nevada, on a visit to relatives. Last night the members of the orchestra band, of which Mr. Levy was a member, gave at the corner of San Joaquin and N streets.

A Worthy Society.

The Unity Society held a very interesting meeting last Sunday at Nichols' Hall. Addresses were made by Judge W. N. North, George R. Church, F. H. Church, Mrs. Kellough and others.

The society will meet again next Sunday at 11 A. M. in the Elderly building, for the purpose of raising money for the poor of the city. The program of the society is literary, moral, social and educational improvement, and it is expected that in course of time it will result in the elevation of the moral and religious condition of the community.

Dedication of the Adventists' Church.

A large congregation attended the dedication of the beautiful church of the Seventh Day Adventists last Sunday on the east corner of Mariposa and O streets. The choir consisted of Messrs. Beall, Conner, Howard, Hanks, Hays and Loman. The choir sang the hymns and the choir sang the hymns and the choir sang the hymns.

Dr. W. H. Darrow read a very complete and instructive history of the church, and Dr. Bartlett preached a masterly sermon. The choir sang the hymns and the choir sang the hymns and the choir sang the hymns.

A New Settler's House.

James Chamberlain, a capitalist, recently from Seattle, Wash., has awarded to A. Struck the contract for erecting a handsome two-story residence on his ranch east of Temperance Colony. The ranch will be of the modern style of architecture and will cost between $5000 and $6000. Mr. Chamberlain went to San Francisco yesterday to purchase the furnishings of his proposed new home, which is to be situated on a section of land which will be largely planted to raisin vines next spring.

W. C. T. U.

The Union will hold no meeting next Thursday evening, so as not to conflict in any way with the entertainment given for the benefit of the public schools. This afternoon at 3 o'clock the Union will meet in the Presbyterian church and will need in the afternoon and evening the evening there will be a union temperance prayer meeting.

Mrs. Viola Mitchell, Secretary.

Patti Ross.

Patti Ross, the accomplished scabbette, will give Fresnoites a taste of her quality to-night in Riggs theater. Patti has sung, danced and kicked her way into popular favor. She has a plump, serious little face, thick bands of honey brown hair and lustrous, captivating eyes, and of which she is fond of winking at her friends in the front row.

A Bold Theft.

T. Pickford, whose poultry yards are at the corner of Mono street and P. avenue, tonight lost a dozen hens last Thursday for $20, and lost them to the cop on the point of the lawn while he was down town. He was gone not more than half an hour, and when he returned the coop and the chickens had disappeared. He has not found them yet.

Return of Frank Laming.

Frank Laming has returned from a six weeks visit to the San Joaquin valley. He reports business as dull as lead, water in Stockton and the fact that the crop on the point of the lawn while he was down town. He was gone not more than half an hour, and when he returned the coop and the chickens had disappeared. He has not found them yet.

The Mikado Fruit Company.

The Mikado Fruit Company will begin drying fruit in their dryer in Nevada Colony this morning. The new improved fruit dryer has a capacity for drying between thirty and forty tons of fruit per day. The company will first commence on the second crop of raisins.

THE FRESNO REPUBLICAN

EVERY FRIDAY AFTERNOON

J. W. SHURT. J. W. SHANKLIN.

Editors and Publishers.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1889.

From the Daily of Wednesday.

Ray Withered to Bakersfield last evening. He will be absent several months.

E. B. Hayes drew the gold watch at the sixth yearly drawing of the Occidental Club last Saturday night.

Judge and Mrs. C. H. Sayle and children returned on the round-trip express last evening from a visit to the coast.

Mrs. F. D. Vanderlip, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Sherman Henry, arrived in the city on Oakland last evening.

Mrs. J. G. Rhodes and mother, Mrs. Sarah Wheeler, returned from San Francisco last evening after an absence of several months.

Professor Walsh, instructor of the Young Men's Christian Association Athletic Club, returned last evening from a visit to San Francisco.

The City Society will meet next Sunday at 11 A. M. over the Imperial hotel on K street, the same place where the meeting was held last Sunday.

O. A. Wagner returned yesterday afternoon from a week's visit to his mother in Reno, Nevada. This is the first time the brothers had been in eight years.

Thomas Bates of Centerville returned last Monday evening from a visit to his old home in Kentucky. He is accompanied by his mother and J. A. Gibson, a nephew.

A very pleasant little surprise was tendered Mrs. W. H. Harris at her residence on N street by a number of friends last evening, the occasion being the anniversary of her birth.

J. Johnson of East Avenue, had 2500 yards of musical raincoat partly cut out in the rain. The continued damp weather spoiled them and they turned out to be a total loss.

The work on the San Joaquin, on the corner of Mariposa and N streets, is now nearly up to the surface of the ground.

The social given by the members of the Society of Christian Scientists of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at the residence of Mrs. Delia Mills last evening was well attended. Everyone present had a joyous and interesting time.

C. A. Stevens desires the Republican to extend his thanks to the friends who assisted in saving his two-story

